LAWLER'S BULBS

GEORGE LAWLER

BULB GROWER

TACOMA, WASHINGTON

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

All prices quoted are f. o. b. Tacoma, packing charges at cost, unless otherwise stated. 6 bulbs at the 12 rate; 25 bulbs at the 100 rate; 250 bulbs at the 1,000 rate.

In case of error or dissatisfaction of any kind, please notify me immediately so that proper adjustment may be made.

Cash or satisfactory references must accompany all orders, unless you already have an account with me.

Please give explicit shipping directions, stating whether your order is to be shipped by Parcel Post, Express, or Freight, and by which route. All Parcel-Post shipments will be sent insured, insurance and postage to be paid by the purchaser.

HOW TO PLANT BULBS

Plant all fall bulbs as soon as they can be secured. Drainage is essential. Dig the soil deeply—18 inches if possible. Pulverize and, if heavy, place a cushion of sand under the larger bulbs, especially lilies.

Use no barnyard manure unless it can be spaded into the ground the spring previous to planting. Bone-meal is the only safe fertilizer and should be used freely.

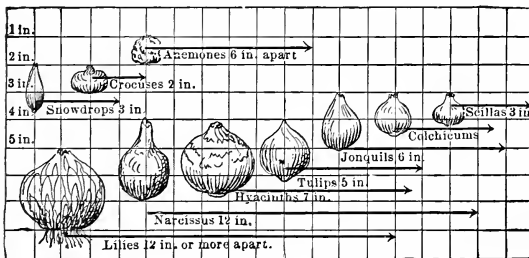

If planting with a dibber, take care that the bulb rests on the soil and is not "hung"—that is, left with a hole beneath it caused by the point of the dibber.

Lilies, especially the Japanese varieties, usually arrive too late to be planted before November. Cover the place selected for them with a heavy mulch so the ground will not freeze and plant the lilies at once when received. If the ground is frozen, wait until spring and plant as early as the ground can be worked.

Plant bulbs, as a rule, one and a half times their depth; early tulips 4 to 5 inches deep; the larger late tulips 5 to 6 inches deep; narcissus and hyacinths 5 to 6 inches deep; lilies 6 inches deep; crocuses and small bulbs 2 inches deep.

Mulch late-planted bulbs after the ground freezes, to keep it frozen and prevent thawing and heaving.

DEPTH BULBS SHOULD BE PLANTED

Many of our customers are frequently puzzled to know the proper depth and distance apart at which bulbs should be planted. The accompanying diagram conveys the information much more clearly and briefly than any description could. The chart will bear careful study. Outdoor planting should be done early in the fall to secure healthy plants, vigorous foliage, and beautiful flowers.

A PLANTING OF Ten Thousand Daffodil Bulbs IN THE WOODLANDS

DOESN'T this inspire a desire to beautify your woodlands a bit this fall? Bluebells of Scotland, and Daffodils as well, will flaunt their gay colors in greeting to spring—even before the new grass has lost its tender green—because the fortunate owner of this lovely woodland used a little forethought and planted the bulbs of these earliest spring flowers. To brighten the spring landscape of your tree parks, the bulbs should be planted not later than September in our northern latitude. AS PERMANENT AS THE TREES, and as hardy—freezing does not hurt them.

An Offering of Lawler's Naturalizing Mixture of Daffodil Bulbs at . . .

Per bushel
of 35 pounds

$35

This mixture contains early, late and mid-season varieties—planned to make the blooming season longer—kinds best adapted for growing wild in the meadows and woodlands.

HOW TO PLANT.—Lift the turf with a long-handled spade and before removing the spade throw some bulbs under; then remove spade, letting the soil fall on the bulbs, after which stamp the earth firmly over the bulbs. Plant now. Blooms next spring.

WHICH IS RIGHT?

Narcissus, Daffodil or Jonquil?
Which Is Which?

Answer

All are Narcissi; that is the family name. Some of the Narcissus family are nicknamed Daffodils and some are nicknamed Jonquils. Call all of them Narcissi, big or little, yellow or white, single or double, and you are correct.

TULIPS

Next to Daffodils the most popular spring flowers are the Tulips. First come the Single Early varieties which bloom around the first of May. As the season advances, other classes burst into flower, closing with a gorgeous display by the late Darwins. No garden ever has too many Tulips, and a modest investment in bulbs will pay big dividends in garden pleasure.

DARWIN TULIPS

Darwin Tulips are strongly recommended for garden decoration in beds, as well as groups in the herbaceous border and among shrubs. As cut-flowers they are valuable at a time when our gardens yield little for the decorations of our rooms. They bloom during the middle of May and the blooms remain in condition a long time. By forcing in pots they may be had in bloom in February or even a little earlier. Most varieties are improved in color by protection under glass or canvas.

MONTBRETIA

Plant as early as possible in spring, and where the bulbs may have full sunlight. The bulbs may be set in groups 4 to 5 inches apart, or in straight rows about 2 to 3 inches apart, covering the bulbs with about 4 inches of soil. Cultivate during the summer. The blooming period is in late summer and early fall. After the foliage has been killed by frost, the bulbs may be removed and stored in a cool cellar, covering with dry sand. In milder climates the bulbs may be left in the bed, provided they are well covered with litter. Plant the bulbs immediately, or store them in a cool place until planting-time.

Regale (Myriophyllum of gardens). This is generally regarded as the finest of all garden Lilies. It grows to a height of 3 to 4 feet, the sturdy stems being topped with an exquisite cluster of four to twelve flowers. The center is flushed soft yellow, shading to pearly white at the outer edges. The outside ribs are brown, shading to pink with white between. The fragrant flowers are shaped like the Easter-Lily, and the bulbs are perfectly hardy.
